

Porchlight Story

Draw a picture of your person here...

This is

They were made homeless when.....
.....

They met a Porchlight outreach worker and

The services they used were.....
.....

The home they now live in is

Anna was made homeless when her mum kicked her out because they kept arguing. She met a Porchlight outreach worker and found a new home. The services she used were: counselling for her mental health, finding work and somewhere to live. The home she now lives in is cosy and painted in her favourite colours.

